DR. RUTH L. FUENTES, CESO V

Regional Director
Department of Education
Zamboanga Peninsula

Dear Dr. Fuentes:

Greetings from ZamPen Region Librarians Council!

The Philippine Librarians Associations, Inc. - Zamboanga Peninsula Region Librarians Council (PLAI-ZamPen), in collaboration with Ateneo de Zamboanga University- Fr. Jose T. Bacatan SJ Library and REGALO Touching Lives will conduct a Seminar-Workshop on Library E-Resources for Hybrid Environment. The activity will be held on September 28-29, 2022, at the Ateneo de Zamboanga University, La Purisima St., Zamboanga City.

The activity aims to provide basic and advance knowledge in developing library collection in the information age; apply the use of Open Educational Resources (OER) in the online library environment as a library service; acquire information literacy skills in the use of e-library resources; and identify the different strategies and challenges for marketing library electronic resources.

Librarians, library administrators, library-in-charge, researchers, faculty and students of LIS are invited to participate in the seminar-workshop in order to update ourselves to the latest trends in the field of librarianship and develop linkages with our colleagues in the profession. The registration fee is PHP3,000.00 (PLAI-member), PHP3,500 (non-member including the IT Staff) and PHP1,000 (BLIS students) inclusive of meals, snacks, kit, and certificate of participation with CPD.

In line with this, may we respectfully request for your advisory to incite DepEd Regional Office – IX librarians, library-in-charge, and library administrators to attend the seminar-workshop. Attached is the invitation letter and program for additional information regarding the activity.

Should you need to clarify some details, please contact the undersigned at mobile no. 09190934565, or Mr. Mark Andrew D. Bacordo at mobile no. 09688556956.

We look forward for your usual positive response.

Thank you.

Dear Colleagues in the Profession:

Greetings from ZamPen Region Librarians Council!

The Philippine Librarians Associations, Inc. - Zamboanga Peninsula Region Librarians Council (PLAI-ZPRLC), in collaboration with Ateneo de Zamboanga University and REGALO Touching Lives will conduct Seminar-Workshop on Library E-Resources for Hybrid Environment on September 28-29, 2022 at the Ateneo de Zamboanga University, La Purisima St., Zamboanga City.

The activity aims to provide basic and advance knowledge in developing library collection in the information age; apply the use of Open Educational Resources (OER) in the online library environment as a library service; acquire information literacy skills in the use of e-library resources; and identify the different strategies and challenges for marketing library electronic resources.

With this, we are pleased to invite you and your library IT Staff to attend the said activity. A registration fee of PHP3,000.00 (PLAI-member), PHP3,500 (non-member including the IT Staff) and PHP1,000 (BLIS students) will be charged to cover the expenses for the certificates, meals, snacks, kits, and other miscellaneous expenses. Payment can be deposited to PHILIPPINE LIBRARIANS ASSOCIATION, INC, Bank of Commerce-Veterans Branch, Account # 029-20-007073-7 or thru GCASH of MS. AGNES LIM, Account #09051306999. Please submit deposit slip or transaction receipt through email (plaizampeninsula@gmail.com) or during registration.

This seminar will also allow you to renew your annual dues of Php 300.00. This will be collected upon the registration for the seminar.

Requests for DepEd Advisory, CSC Announcement, and CHED Memo are still being processed and PLAI-ZAMPEN seminar-workshop is also being applied as a CPD Program.

For confirmation, please contact Ms. Agnes S. Lim, at mobile number 0905-130-6999 or Ms. Carmelita T. Agustin at mobile number 0926-905-8990.

Please see attached program for your reference.

We look forward for your usual positive response.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
